LITIGATION

Mass tort and class action: plaintiff representation – antitrust

Labaton Sucharow LLP maintains high visibility in major antitrust class actions and clients say the firm ‘clearly has the horsepower to manage complex and demanding cases’, while adversaries comment on its ‘uniform excellence in all respects’. The firm is co-lead counsel in In re Air Cargo Shipping Services Antitrust Litigation, in which it has to date obtained over $200m in partial settlements for plaintiffs alleging the fixing of international airfreight services by airlines, including Air France, SAS, Japan Airline International and American Airlines. The court granted preliminary approval of these settlements in September 2010. Other mandates included In re Aftermarket Filters Antitrust Litigation; In re Puerto Rican Cabotage Antitrust Litigation; and Board of Trustees of the Galveston Wharves et al v Trelleborg AB et al. Hollis Salzman co-chairs the antitrust practice group and is ‘smart, hardworking and has a great deal of integrity’. Bernard Persky is a ‘prominent antitrust lawyer’, who is ‘dedicated to pursuing his clients’ interests, and is unfailingly ethical and professional’.
